

Rick Wagner

President

ManTech Mission, Cyber & Intelligence Solutions Group

Rick Wagner is president of ManTech's Mission, Cyber & Intelligence Solutions (MCIS) Group, providing overall vision and strategy, and is responsible for profit and loss management.

Mr. Wagner previously served as the executive vice president and chief operating officer of MCIS, leading the group's day-to-day operations. He has also led ManTech's Advanced Technology Solutions business, where he guided its successes in cyber, mission IT and intelligence operations.

Before joining ManTech in 2015, Mr. Wagner was chief strategy officer at TASC, Inc., where he led merger and acquisition activity, including due diligence and integration for the merger with Engility Holdings, Inc. During his 16 years at TASC, he rose from program manager/systems engineer to senior vice president of the company's Defense Group. Earlier in his career, Mr. Wagner held management positions at Lockheed Martin and Raytheon and worked as a software engineer and project manager for the Naval Surface Warfare Center.

He is a staunch advocate of efforts that support veterans and has a passion for STEM projects.

Mr. Wagner is a member of the Intelligence & National Security Alliance (INSA) Board of Directors, in addition to being a member of the AFCEA and the 4x24 Leadership Program of Executive Mosaic.

He earned a Master of Engineering Management from George Washington University and a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University of Pittsburgh.

Contact: Media Relations (703) 259-3636